Hallman

Before the bright lights, factory semi's, big contracts and corporate culture, there was simply a community of riders that shared a passion for dirt, grease, gas, oil and good times. The Hallman brand is synonymous with those times. Founded in 1968 by Four-time World Motocross Champion Torsten Hallman, the brand launched an entire industry and soon countless brands sought to emulate the distinctive Hallman style.

There is only one authentic, original, true brand. The real deal, the right stuff, the goods. That brand is Hallman.

Join us as we connect the past and the present with a product line that embraces the original spirit and style while adopting innovative materials and craftsmanship that excel in today's toughest conditions.
